

New development centre set up in city

Bosch supports India's skilling agenda with a new development centre in Bengaluru at the government Industrial Training Institute (ITI), which will help upskill the current and future ITI students and help them prepare for their future endeavours. The Skill Development Center is the latest addition to Bosch's skilling initiatives that aims at supporting the industry by improving the workforce.